

Eric M. Cachia, L.Ac.

Clinical Acupuncturist

---

CLINICAL ACUPUNCTURIST EXPERT WITNESS/EDUCATOR

CLINICAL QUALIFICATIONS:

Doctor of Acupuncture, Licensed by the Rhode Island Acupuncture Board.

2000 - Present - Licensed by the California Acupuncture Board

2006 - Licensed by the Florida Acupuncture Board.

Diplomat, National Board of Acupuncture.

Diplomat, National Board of Herbology.

Medical Laser Safety Officer Certification (MLSO).

Nogier Laser Protocol for Addiction Therapy.

Acupuncture injection therapist.

Trigger point and peri-articular injection therapist.

Mesotherapy and cosmetic injections.

Functional medicine assessments and nutritional consultation.

Board eligible in Acupuncture Orthopedics.

Evidence Based electro-medicine protocols.

Certification in therapeutic massage.

Certification in blood borne pathogens and clean needle technique.

Health care provider certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine CE Professor, Clinical Acupuncturist, and Researcher.

Assistant Academic Dean, Clinic Supervisor and Professor, East West College of Natural Medicine.

Dean of Acupuncture Professor and Clinic Supervisor Kyung San University.

Examiner, Council of Colleges Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine.

Examiner, Council of Colleges Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine.

Continuing Education lecturer, St. Joseph's Mission Hospital.

Guest lecturer, University of California, Irvine College of Medicine.

EDUCATION & TRAINING:

Doctor of Naturopathy, La Salle University

Acupuncture Orthopedics Board certification, Lerner Education

MSCTM, American College of Traditional Chinese Medicine

B.S. Psychology, California State University, Fullerton

Law School, Western State University

Certification in Advanced Laser Class IIIB, IV soft tissue injury, joint and wound healing applications. Acupuncture injection certification.